Dynamo Elite Soccer Programs will be holding summer camps in Alexandria for the fifth summer.

The camps provide players with quality personalized/small group training to help each player grow to their full potential.

Players will gain renewed energy, enthusiasm for the game and improved self-confidence - all keys to a players' growth. Each player will receive an evaluation upon the conclusion of camp to help them set goals for the upcoming season. The camps are directed by Ryan Quinn, Director of Coaching and Player Development for the Alexandria Soccer Association.

Goalkeeper training will also be provided at the camp for players who are interested.
